(4) Loan agreement. Items will be transferred under a loan agreement executed by the Administrator and the borrower. Any attempt on the part of the borrower to retransfer an item, even to another institution for related purposes, will violate and invalidate the loan agreement, and entitle the United States to immediate repossession of the item, unless the prior approval of the Administrator has been obtained under § 904.510(d)(5). Violation of the loan agreement may also subject the violator to the penalties provided by the laws governing possession and transfer of the item.

(5) Temporary reloans; documents to accompany items. Temporary reloans by the borrower to another qualified borrower (as for temporary exhibition) may be made if the Administrator is advised in advance by the borrowers. Temporary loans for more than thirty days must be approved in advance in writing by the Administrator. A copy of the original loan agreement, and a copy of the written approval for reloan, if any, must accompany the item whenever it is temporarily reloaned or is shipped or transported across state or international boundaries.

(e) Destruction of items. This paragraph and other provisions relating to the destruction of property apply to items:

(1) Which have not been handcrafted, or

(2) Which have been handcrafted and are of less than one hundred dollars ($100) value, and

(3) For which no acceptable applications have been received, or for which publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the availability of similar items in the past has resulted in the receipt of no applications. Such items may be destroyed if they have been in government ownership for more than one year. Perishable items which are not fit for human consumption may be destroyed sooner, if the authorization required by § 904.510(c) has been obtained.

Destruction of items will be witnessed by two persons, one of whom may be the disposing officer.

(f) Food items. Food items will, if possible, be disposed of by gift to nonprofit groups providing public welfare food services.

(g) Record-keeping. A “fish and wildlife disposal” form will be completed each time an item is disposed of pursuant to the policy and procedure established herein, and will be retained in the case file for the item. These forms will be available to the public.
